Summary

Join Novartis as a Communications and Patient Advocacy Manager to drive our mission of improving lives through innovative healthcare. You'll shape communication strategies and forge strong patient advocacy relationships across our therapeutic areas. This role offers a unique opportunity to blend communications expertise with patient engagement, directly impacting global health outcomes.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities:

Your responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Develop and execute impactful communication strategies aligned with business priorities
- Craft compelling content across various platforms, including press releases and social media
- Build and nurture relationships with patient advocacy groups to enhance access and understanding
- Integrate patient perspectives into strategic planning processes
- Coordinate patient engagement activities, ensuring meaningful involvement in key initiatives
- Guide Novartis employees on patient communication best practices and ethical standards
- Manage agencies and campaign budgets to achieve outstanding results
- Analyze and measure the effectiveness of communication and advocacy efforts

Essential Requirements:

- 5+ years of experience in-house or agency settings
- Degree in Communications, Marketing, PR, or related field with medical background
- Proven track record developing strategic communication plans in complex environments
- Expertise in patient advocacy principles, best practices, and regulatory considerations
- Exceptional written and verbal skills, able to translate complex scientific concepts
- Strong relationship-building abilities with internal and external stakeholders
- Proficiency in digital channels and social media for patient engagement
- Analytical mindset to measure and improve communication impact
- Adaptable problem-solver with a proactive, curious approach to challenges

You can find everything you need to know about our benefits and rewards in the Novartis Life Handbook. <https://www.novartis.com/careers/benefits-rewards>

In addition to a market-competitive base salary, we offer an attractive incentive program, a modern company pension scheme, childcare facilities, learning and development opportunities as well as worldwide career possibilities within the Novartis group. In accordance with Austrian law, we are obliged to disclose the minimum salary as stated in the collective bargaining agreement. For this position the minimum salary is € 38.038/year (on a full-time basis). In most cases, the actual salary will be higher, as we strive to maintain a competitive position in the market and consider your previous experience, qualifications and individual competencies. We are open for part-time and job-sharing models and support flexible and remote working where possible.

Commitment to Diversity & Inclusion:

Novartis is committed to building an outstanding, inclusive working environment and diverse teams, representative of the patients and communities we serve.

Adjustments for Applicants with Disabilities:

If because of a medical condition, physical disability or a neurodiverse condition you require an adjustment during the recruitment process, please reach out to disabilities.austria@novartis.com and let us know the nature of your request as well as your contact information. The support which we can provide will include advice on suitable positions as well as guidance at all stages of the application process. Austrian law provides candidates the opportunity to involve the local disability representative, Behindertenvertrauensperson (BVP), in the application process. If you would like to request this, please let us know in advance as a note on your CV.
