Job Description Summary

The Health Data Insights Manager is responsible for generating robust insights and supports the acceleration of high-quality prediction systems, infusing patient level data science and informatics into each step of the clinical trial process with focus on Feasibility (especially using TriNetX, EHR/EMR datasets).

As a key member of Health Data Insights delivery team, he / she develops insights and recommendations in collaboration with the Health Data Insights Director and Associate Director and supports them for effective delivery.

About the Role

Major Accountabilities:

- Lead end-to-end international market research projects, from scoping to insight delivery and stakeholder alignment
- Translate complex business questions into clear, actionable research objectives and methodologies
- Collaborate cross-functionally to ensure research aligns with commercial, medical, and access strategies
- Manage external vendors, ensuring compliance with internal policies and global data privacy regulations
- Synthesize research findings into compelling narratives and strategic recommendations for senior leadership
- Champion innovation in research design, tools, and storytelling within the Integrated Insights team
- Mentor junior team members and foster a culture of curiosity, collaboration, and excellence
- Communicate insights effectively through impactful presentations, reports, and visual storytelling

Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree in Life Sciences, Business, Economics, or Market Research; advanced degree strongly preferred
- Minimum 7 years of experience in market research or insights, ideally within the pharmaceutical or healthcare sector
- Proven track record managing international research projects across diverse cultural contexts
- Strong knowledge of both primary and secondary research methodologies

- Ability to apply behavioral science principles to understand and influence stakeholder behaviors
- Skilled in analyzing competitive intelligence and market dynamics to inform strategic decisions
- Excellent communication and storytelling skills to influence senior stakeholders
- Familiarity with compliance standards in market research, including transparency and adverse event reporting

Commitment to Diversity & Inclusion:

We are committed to building an outstanding, inclusive work environment and diverse teams representative of the patients and communities we serve.
