Location: East Hanover, NJ USA

This position will be located at the East Hanover, NJ site and will not have the ability to be located remotely. This position will require some travel (about 15%) as defined by the business (domestic and/ or international).

As part of our Best-in-Class Finance team, this role will support one of our 4 focused Therapeutic areas and serve as a finance business partner for the respective Therapeutic Areas (the "TA") providing financial control, forecasting, and performance management for the TA including but not limited to budgeting, forecasting/demand planning and financial analysis.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities:

This role will focus on supporting Radioligand team (RLT) within the Oncology TA.

- Business Partnering - Partner with the relevant Product General Management Team, respective General Manager, Product Strategy Lead, Business Excellence lead and cross-functional IPST members, as appropriate, to establish forecasts for the target, in-year updates and longer-term projections.
- Influence Cross-Functional Stakeholders - Serve as active member of Integrated Product Strategy Team (IPST) providing financial guidance inclusive of resource allocation recommendations and trade-offs and overall performance vigilance.
- Performance Vigilance - Structure and communicate complex, ambiguous and potentially challenging business issues to advise and challenge the IPST team. Support monthly and quarterly performance narratives with relevant Product team(s) to drive understanding of financial performance and assist in Investor Relations meetings and deliverables as needed.
- Resource Allocation Excellence - Develop suitable resource allocation strategies with GM team, ensuring that investment is used optimally, consistent with the US Enterprise strategy, and directly aligned with internal marketing mix models.
- Operational Excellence - Drive fully cross-functional integrated planning processes for sales and direct external costs through operational excellence, strategic influencing, and financial leadership to the overall Product team. Execute related financial planning and operational processes including budgeting, monthly closing and reporting, and PO management as appropriate. Ensure key processes are adhered to and conducted compliantly (30%). Liaise with budget owners and stakeholders to proactively manage expense plans. Consolidate and provide insightful expense risks and opportunities.

- Leadership – Potentially lead BP&A associates of varying levels of experience by coaching and providing technical training and feedback to optimize performance.

Essential Requirements:

- Bachelor's or equivalent 4-Year University degree
- 4+ years finance or economic experience, preferably in the Pharmaceutical/Biotech Industry
- Partnering - Communicates clearly and effectively, both orally and in writing
- Influencing – Emerging competency; works with business leaders to drive results and persuade with data
- Leadership - Takes ownership and drives results
- Analytical - Exhibits problem solving skills and attention to detail
- Creative - Demonstrates ability to find creative ways to tackle big picture challenges
- Adaptable - Excels in a constantly evolving environment
